

WORLD'S UNENDING DRAMA AND ACTORS IN ITS PRINCIPAL SCENES AS REVEALED BY THE CAMERA

HINDU MOUNTED LANCERS SPEARING TARGETS ON GROUND WHEN AT FULL SPEED
In order to exercise the Indian cavalry forces, which have been necessarily inactive owing to the use of the airship, the British recently held a big military tournament behind the lines in Flanders, where dusky horsemen performed feats in skill.

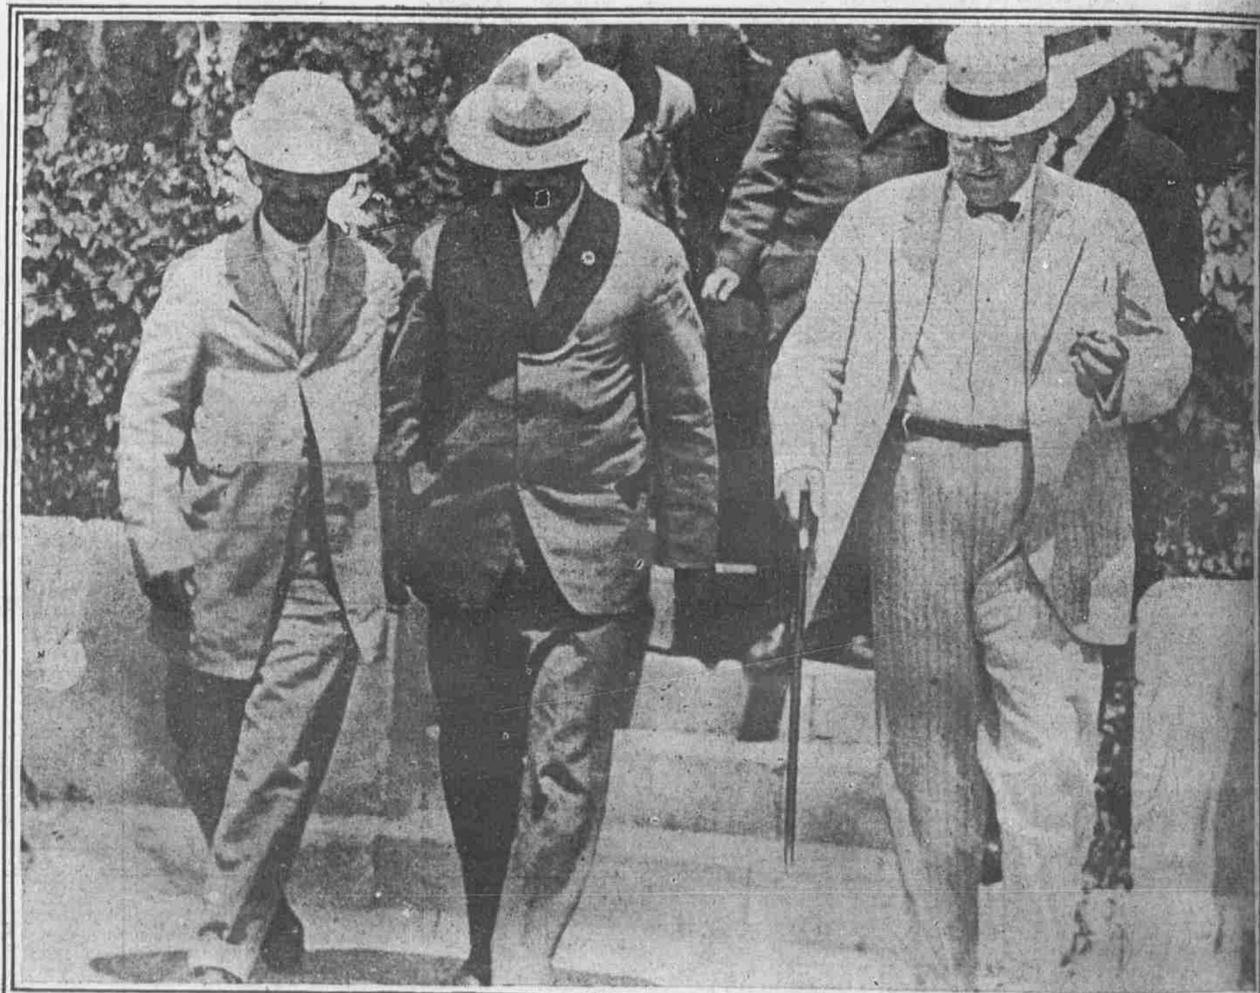

Photo by Meloni.

ONLY AVIATRRESS WHO LOOPS THE LOOP
Miss Katherine Stimson, who is hardly out of her teens, has been startling Chicago with her fancy flights in the heavens.

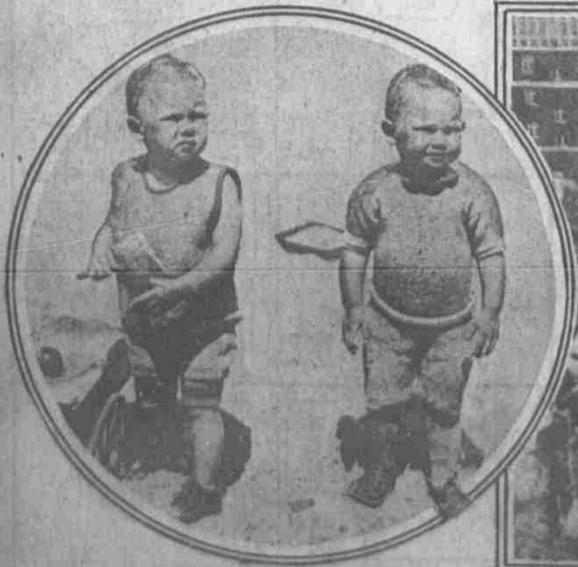

A COMMISSIONER OF RELIGION
The Shiek-ul-Islam has arrived in this country on his way to the Philippines. His complexion is fair, his eyes blue. His Moorish boy stands 10 feet away always.

Photo by Int. News Service.

GENERAL VILLA MEETS UNITED STATES OFFICIALS IN CONFERENCE
The Mexican chief is shown leaving an El Paso home accompanied by George Carothers, State Department representative, where means of bringing peace in Mexico were discussed.

Photo by Int. News Service.

TWINS THAT STARTED A CONTROVERSY
These girls of 18 months, daughters of Beatrice Forbes, a Boston-Heyt suffragist, upon Scituate, Mass., by bathing in a state of nature. Other mothers said it was awful.

GERMANY PUTS EVERY VACANT SPACE INTO CULTIVATION AND LETS CHILDREN DO THE TILLING
Cut off from supplies by sea, the Empire has gone to work systematically to conserve every resource and develop every unused plot of ground. Children have been encouraged to sow all vacant lots and raise vegetables which will help to feed the population.

